Book Parade is coming.

Our Book Week Parade is just around the corner and we can't wait to see our school filled with wizards, wild things, animals in hats, heroes, villains, adventurers and everything in between.

This is your moment to get creative, you don't need to buy a costume! Think cardboard, face paint, old clothes and a big imagination. From a simple prop to a full character transformation, every effort is celebrated. Let's make it a day of colour, fun and storytelling adventures!

We can't wait to see who comes through the gate this year. Mrs Gibbs & Miss Johnson
